VOTER ELIGIBILITY, CERTIFICATION AND VOTING INSTRUCTIONS

STEP 1: To be eligible to vote, you must currently meet the definition of a Hass avocado importer member of MHAIA: Under the Hass Avocado Promotion, Research and Information Order, 7 CFR Part 1219, an IMPORTER is defined as: Any person who imports Hass avocados into the United States. The term includes a person who holds title to Hass avocados produced outside of the United States immediately upon release by Customs, as well as any person who acts on behalf of others, as an agent, broker, or consignee, to secure the release of Hass avocados from Customs and the introduction of the released Hass avocados into the current of commerce and who is listed in the import records of Customs as the importer of record for such Hass avocados.

If you do not meet the criteria, check the box to the right and return your ballot without completing it.

STEP 2: If you are an eligible Hass importer of Hass avocados from Mexico, complete the certification and voting sections below.

I certify that I am an importer of Hass avocados in the United States and I am a Member of the MHAIA.
